

New York State Paid Family Leave

Key facts for New York covered employees

Paid Family Leave (PFL) provides paid time off so an employee can:

- Bond with a newly born, adopted, or fostered child,
- Care for a family member (spouse, domestic partner, child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, or grandchild) with a serious health condition, or
- Assist loved ones when a family member (spouse, domestic partner, child or parent) is deployed abroad on active military duty.

Additional protections

- Employees have a right to return to the same or comparable job upon return from Paid Family Leave.
- Employees are guaranteed continued health insurance while on leave. Employers may require employees to continue to pay their health insurance premium contributions.
- Citizenship and immigration status do not impact eligibility.
- Employers cannot discriminate against employees for taking Paid Family Leave.
- The program is mandatory for all private employers to provide for all NY covered employees.

Eligibility

- Employees with a regular work schedule of 20 or more hours per week are eligible after 26 consecutive weeks of employment preceding the first full day of leave.
- Employees with a regular work schedule of less than 20 hours per week are eligible after 175 days worked (does not need to be consecutive) preceding the first full day of leave.

- For 2022, the employee contribution rate is 0.511% of an employee's weekly wages up to the annualized NYSAWW ($82,917.64) for a maximum annual employee contribution of $423.71.

How to File a PFL Claim

- Employee must notify their employer 30 days prior to a leave, when practical.
- Employee must complete an NY PFL claim form available from your employer or Guardian directly.
- Employee needs to obtain supporting documentation for a leave (i.e. birth certificate, military deployment certification, etc.) and submit with claim form.
