

The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America

Investment Committee Charter

I. Purpose

The primary purpose of the Investment Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of The Guardian Life Insurance Company of America (the "Company") is (i) to have general control and supervision over the investments held by the General Account of the Company, including the power to invest, acquire, exchange and dispose of any such investments of the Company in such manner, and in such amounts, as the Committee may determine; and (ii) to review the investment activities and results of the Company's subsidiaries and funds managed by the Company.

The Committee shall also undertake such other activities as are consistent with this Investment Committee Charter (the "Charter"), the Company's charter, Bylaws and Corporate Governance Guidelines, and governing law and regulation, and shall conduct itself in accordance therewith. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Charter and the Company's charter, Bylaws or Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Company's charter, Bylaws or Corporate Governance Guidelines will govern.

II. Organization/Composition

The regular members of the Committee shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Board and shall hold office for one year or until their successors are elected. The number of regular members shall be determined by the Board, but shall be no fewer than three. Additional members of the Committee may be elected at any meeting of the Board for terms of office of one year or for any shorter period as the Board may determine. All members of the Committee shall be independent Directors. A Chair shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Board from among the Committee's membership, taking into consideration any recommendations made by the Human Resources and Governance Committee in consultation with the Lead Director.

No member of the Committee (or any member of a Committee member's immediate family) shall receive any salary, consulting, advisory or other compensatory fees from the Company, except in a Committee member's capacity as a Board or Committee member.

III. Meetings and Procedures

The Committee will meet at least four times per year, with authority to convene additional meetings, as circumstances require. The Committee may hold meetings in person, by means of telephone or video conference or similar communication equipment, as frequently as it deems necessary in order to fulfill its responsibilities under this Charter. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum, and the action of a majority of members at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be the action of the Committee.

At each meeting, the Committee shall have the opportunity to meet in executive session.

From time to time, the Committee may delegate duties or responsibilities to subcommittees composed of a member or members of the Committee.

The Committee may meet with members of management, who may be asked to help set the Committee's agenda, furnish materials and analyses to members in advance of meetings and to provide information and advice to the Committee as needed.

The Committee and any of its subcommittees shall maintain written minutes of its meetings.

IV. Committee Authority, Roles and Responsibilities

The Committee shall have the authority to conduct its affairs in such reasonable manner as it may determine and may employ whatever assistance it may deem necessary or advisable. Specifically, the Committee shall have the authority to retain at the Company's expense independent legal, financial, accounting or other advisers or consultants.

The Committee's activities shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- a. Authorization of certain executives of the Company or any qualified investment adviser, to exercise the investment powers granted to the Committee subject to such restrictions as the Committee may deem advisable or appropriate as well as any changes in the delegation of investment authority in connection thereto;
- b. Review, on a quarterly basis, the Chief Investment Officer's (the "CIO") certification of all investments approved by certain executives or investment advisers pursuant to the delegated investment authority cited in (a) above;
- c. Review and approval of investment policies and objectives prepared by management with respect to the General Account;
- d. Monitoring the absolute and relative performance of the General Account;
- e. Oversight of the Company's Derivatives Use Plan ("DUP"), as submitted to the New York Superintendent of Financial Services (the "Superintendent") for approval and as required by New York Insurance Law ("NYIL"), and any amendments to such DUP, which require similar approval of the Superintendent;
- f. Oversight of all General Account investments in order that they not exceed those limitations set forth in NYIL;
- g. Monitoring all investment risks that may affect the Company's financial strength or financial ratings and the steps taken by management to manage these risks within acceptable tolerances and potential returns;
- h. Recommend and/or approve matters assigned to the Committee pursuant to the Company's Investment Incentive Compensation Plan, as in effect at the relevant time;
- i. Reviewing asset-liability management policies and their impact on the Company's financial position;
- j. Oversight of the Company's investment-based environmental, social and governance ("ESG") and climate-related matters;
- k. Oversight of the Company's securities lending activities and any related guidelines;
- l. Reporting to the Board about Committee activities, issues, actions and recommendations;
- m. Reviewing any other reports the Company issues that relate to Committee responsibilities; and
- n. On a regular basis, meet separately with the CIO in executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Committee or CIO believe should be discussed privately. The CIO is expected to communicate with the Chair on any significant investment issues that arise in between Committee meetings.

V. Performance Evaluation

The Committee shall conduct a self-evaluation on a periodic basis. In this regard, the Committee shall compare its performance with the provisions of this Charter.

VI. Review of Charter

The Committee shall review periodically the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Human Resources and Governance Committee and the Board for approval.

VII. Publication of Charter

This Charter will be made available on the Company's website.

Adopted: October 24, 2007
Most Recently Amended: May 5, 2022