

You have the right to request an amendment to your Protected Health Information (PHI), held by Guardian, if you feel it is not correct or incomplete. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by Guardian. You must provide a reason that supports your request.

Guardian reserves the right to deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by Guardian, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
- Is not part of a "designated record set" kept by or for Guardian;
- Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- Is accurate and complete.
